

TOCQUEVILLE SOCIETY

Philanthropic leaders who, through generous gifts of treasure, demonstrate their commitment to tackling our community's most pressing problems to create sustainable change.

The Tocqueville Society members are philanthropic leaders who, through generous gifts of treasure, demonstrate their commitment to tackling our community's most pressing problems to create sustainable change. The Society is named after the 19th century French political thinker and historian Alexis de Tocqueville who, in his writings, recognized the importance of voluntary action on behalf of the common good. Our local Society, created in 1991 to develop a stronger sense of community and connection among local philanthropists, is the largest

Membership Criteria

The Tocqueville Society is open to individuals who contribute $10,000 or more annually to United Way of Delaware.

Membership Benefits

- Access to, and networking with, influential Delaware business and community leaders
- Opportunities to participate in the work of United Way with other Tocqueville donors, experiencing the impact of one's gift firsthand
- Invitations to exclusive events during the year
- Listing in the annual Tocqueville Society membership registry

For More Information, Contact: tocqueville@uwde.org